What makes the matter still worse is the fact that Reed played his game so cunningly and so perfectly that he was received as a member of the Baptist church of which Davis is pastor three weeks ago, and was baptized by Davis the Sunday night before. The Thursday night that he tried to induce the daughter to elope with him, it is thought the case cannot be reached by law.

THE BREACH WIDENING

LORD HARTINGTON'S LETTER DIS-AVOWING MR. GLADSTONE.

Declarations from the Liberal ranks—Delighted Tories—All uncertainty as to which way the Home Rule will Jump—A Monstrous Edition.

LONDON, Dec. 23.—The publication of Lord Hartington's letter disavowing Mr.
Gladstone's scheme of Home Rule for Ireland has greatly widened the breach in the Liberal party. There are plain indications of many defections from the Liberal ranks at least on the Irish question unless Mr.
Gladstone materially modifies the views he is now supposed to hold. The Tories are delighted and already proclaiming that a coalition with the Whigs is on the point of being consummated. If Lord Hartington's letter stood alone the Tory confidence would be premature, but it is now a fact that represents the sentiments of many influential Whigs beside himself.

Before Lord Hartington's letter was sent to the cable news office for publication it was shown to Mr. George J. Goschen, who was slated for chancellor of the exchequer in Gladstone's next cabinet, to the executive Secretary William Harcourt, and to ex-Ambassador General Sir Henry James. All these gentlemen approved the letter, and they are already convinced that the Tories are recruiting. The approval of Sir William Vernon Harcourt has occasioned general surprise. His recent speech, although it was guarded and guarded language, have seemed to commit him to Mr. Gladstone's scheme. It is now supposed that the notorious foisting of everything Irish upon the Liberal presidence and induced him for once to make a move before being certain which way the sea would jump.

The correspondent called upon the Right Hon. James Lowther, who was Lord Baconfield's chief secretary for Ireland, and who has been re-elected to the house of commons from Lincolnshire. Mr. Lowther was found to be positively bubbling with rage over the idea of granting Home Rule to Ireland on anything like Parnell's terms. He however declined to unbosom himself as to the terms which he would be willing to grant, until he had consulted the other leaders of his party.

Mr. Samuel Storey, the Radical editor who sat in the last parliament, was interviewed and said he was prepared to concede in full the demands of the Parnellites, as he understood them. But he said, Ireland must bear her just proportion of the national debt.
He thought that a written constitution would obviate much of the difficulty which lies in the way of giving Ireland a separate sanctuary.

The leaders of the Salvation Army will present to Home Secretary Richard Assheton Cross, a gigantic petition for the release of Editor Storey, of the Pall Mall Gazette, and Mrs. Rebecca Jarrett, from the prison where they are serving three and a month, respectively, for abducting Eliza Armstrong. The petition is a mile and a half long, contains 89,000 signatures and weighs 400 pounds. If this appeal fails Mr. Storey will have to stay in prison till January 19, and Mrs. Jarrett until April 19, 1904.

Forged Bank Notes.
DUBLIN, Dec. 23.—Forged bank notes of the denomination of £100, one of the banks of this city whose name at present cannot be learned, have been circulated largely during several days past in this and other cities of the United Kingdom. The counterfeit is almost an exact counterpart of the genuine and none but experts can detect the difference. The bank officials are moving heaven and earth to secure the plates from which the notes were printed or the cause of the production.

Honors to Greeley.
LONDON, Dec. 23.—Lieut. Greeley lectured before the Royal Geographical Society. The Marquis of Lorne presided. Among those present were Francis Louisa, Mr. Phipps and wife, and C. p. Norris. The Marquis of Lorne said England was as proud of Greeley as it had started from London. The lecture was unanimously received.

A Fraud Captured.
LONDON, Dec. 23.—A man named Harrison, carrying a "cash stone" hidden in his business in this city, who fled from here some time ago to escape the consequence of a number of frauds perpetrated by him, has been arrested in Spain and will be brought home.

Penal Servitude.
COAK, Dec. 23.—The trial of Casey and Daly for the murder of David Carrigan, at Metairie, November 13, has been concluded.
Both prisoners were convicted and sentenced to fourteen years' penal servitude.

The Patients to go Well.
PARIS, Dec. 23.—M. Roussier reports that he has carefully examined the four Newark patients and that they are doing well.

AN IMPROMPTU DUEL.
Fighting for Powder—istol and Pocketknife—Hill and McCall.

PETERSBURG, Va., Dec. 23.—News has been received here through a private source of an impromptu duel which was fought near Jackson, the county seat of Northampton county, North Carolina, between Edwin Goode and William Wheeler, two men who stand high in that county.

Some days ago Goode's cattle got into Wheeler's field and ate between one hundred and two hundred pounds of fodder.
Wheeler asked Goode to pay him for his loss. Goode refused, and this led to the difficulty. The rencontre took place on a country road, where it is alleged Wheeler challenged Goode to fight.

The weapons used were a pistol and pocketknife. Both men showed great pluck and it was not until Goode had received two bullets from Wheeler's pistol and Wheeler seven or eight shots or cuts from Goode's knife that the encounter ended. Both men will die of their wounds, and it is reported that Goode is already dead.

Ohio & Mississippi.
BALTIMORE, Dec. 23.—A meeting of the holders of the Springfield division bonds of the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad Company was held here to consider a proposition of the company to compromise all questions relating to the bonds by the payment of 5 per cent bonds secured by mortgage upon the main line. The proposition was unanimously rejected and meeting adjourned.

neuralgia, is a dangerous and almost certain means of inducing insanity." It is gratifying to observe that such dangerous consequences may be avoided by the use of TONALIN, which is almost a specific in
